AFFORDABLE CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM

What is ACP?

Congress recently created the long-term $14 billion Affordable Connectivity Program to help ensure eligible households can afford the internet connections needed for work, school, health care and more.

The benefit will provide a discount of up to $30 per month toward internet service including Mobile Broadband for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands from a participating provider.

The Affordable Connectivity Program is limited to one monthly service discount and one device discount per household.

Who is Eligible for ACP?

- SNAP (Food Stamps)
- Medicaid
- WIC (Women, Infant, Children Program)
- SSI (Supplemental Security Income)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8)
- Veterans Pension and Survivor's Benefit
- Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance (BIA)
- Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch Program or School Breakfast Program, including at U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Community Eligibility Provision schools in the 2019-20, 2020-21, or 2021-22 school year.
- Received a Federal Pell Grant in the current award year
- You may also qualify if your total household income is at or under 200% of the Federal Poverty Guideline.
